the indispensable guide to curating resources for worship in the episcopal church newly revised and reorganized planning for rites and rituals is a guide to liturgical planning in the episcopal church organized around the seasons of the church year and the cycle of sunday readings in the revised common lectionary structured as a series of three volumes one for each year in the lectionary cycle planning for rites and rituals includes guidance for making seasonal choices among the church's authorized worship resources brief commentary on each sunday's readings guidance in approaching the prayers of the people and suggestions for observing commemorations from the church's calendar new introductory material suggests approaches to curating liturgical resources new editor andrew wright has applied his years of experience in planning liturgy at parishes across the episcopal church and mentoring clergy to this revision including contributions from throughout the church this volume offers clergy and lay liturgical planners a framework for planning throughout the church year lists that will help you set up for a variety of liturgies and summaries of the documentation about how the areas of the worship space are best arranged and appointed whimsical simple illustrations and prayers drawn from episcopal prayer resources common prayer for children and families is a collection of prayers and liturgies written for kids and the adults or communities who pray with them whimsically illustrated with pen and ink this book contains prayers for morning midday and evening prayers throughout the church year and prayers for all sorts of occasions at the heart of this book is the belief that prayer shapes our lives and should be accessible and meaningful for children the prayers in this book are called common for a variety of reasons like the book of common prayer it seeks to provide a language form and theology that binds episcopalians in shared prayer in addition prayers reflect themes with which children are commonly familiar like home school and camps most of all these prayers are held in common always done within god s holy community that includes family and friends the living and the dead saints and sinners angels archangels and the company of heaven also available in spanish reading age 8 12 years interest range 3 12 years in a world where traditions often get lost in the hustle and bustle of modern life rediscovering the rich tapestry of catholic customs can bring a profound sense of connection and meaning to our daily lives this book serves as a guide to enriching your family s spiritual journey by celebrating the timeless traditions and rituals associated with every catholic holiday and feast day from advent wreaths to easter vigils and from saints feast days to ordinary sundays this book covers a wide array of practices that have been cherished by catholic families for generations each chapter delves into the historical and spiritual significance of these traditions offering practical advice on how to incorporate them into your home whether it s crafting a nativity scene with your children preparing a special meal for all saints day or understanding the liturgical importance of different feast days this book provides the tools and inspiration you need one of the central challenges many catholic families face today is preserving their spiritual heritage amidst a rapidly changing world this book addresses that problem head on by offering creative and manageable ways to maintain these traditions here is a resource that will dramatize the lighting of the advent candles during your worship service the lighting of each candle is preceded by a statement which the author suggests may be read from offstage the series of statements reveal the significance of the traditional advent characters the angel the shepherds the wisemen mary and the christ child this simple but dramatic resource provides an explanation of the deeper meaning of the events preceding Jesus birth as they spell out the relationship of these individuals to Christ the light of the world Wayne I Tilden has served as a minister of drama and instructor of music and drama at various seminars he is the founder of the Salt and Light Company a drama ministry he holds the Master of Divinity degree from American Baptist Seminary of the West Berkeley California Tilden is also the author of Letters from Bethlehem a series of dramatic monologues for Advent CSS Publishing Company

The season of light is a guide for families households classrooms communities and parishes who wish to make the lighting of the advent candles a daily prayer for each day of the season from the first Sunday of Advent until Christmas day the season of light offers a brief liturgy that is based on the structure of vespers or evening prayer in the liturgy of the hours the lighting of the candles the Lucernarium a reading from the advent scriptures petitions and collect and a final blessing the advent wreath is one of the most enduring customs of the Christmas season rich in meaning the four lights of the advent wreath kindle our blessed hope and manifestation of the glory of our great God and savior Jesus Christ Titus 2:13 it is a symbol of our faith that light and life will triumph over darkness and death that our hope in God's providence and love will never leave us disappointed with this rich tradition in mind Jay Cormier has structured the daily liturgies in the season of light as follows the Lucernarium the lighting of the candles the word of God in which a lector reads a scripture passage that reflects the advent themes of joyful expectation and the restoration of justice and peace in the dawning of Jesus Christ the light of the world and prayers in which the presider or leader offers petitions and all respond then the Lord's prayer is recited and the final collect and the blessing including a scriptural blessing and a table blessing before meals are offered by the presider the structure and prayers in the season of light are offered as suggestions adaptations are encouraged for example families may wish to make the intercessions an opportunity for spontaneous prayers offered by participants groups with musical ability and leadership may want to incorporate hymns from the rich treasury of advent and Christian hymnody those who pray the liturgy of the hours regularly might consider including the advent wreath custom with the psalms and prayers of the hours designed for all those who wish to make the advent wreath a daily prayer and part of their Christmas observance and tradition the season of light helps Christians celebrate that we are an advent people a people who live in the eternal hope and expectation of the ever burning light of Jesus Christ Jay Cormier is the editor of Connections a newsletter of ideas and resources for homilists the Liturgical Press has also published his Lord Hear Our Prayer the prayer of the faithful for Sundays Holy Days and ritual masses and the family advent wreath blessings and prayers published during the tenth anniversary of the book of common worship 1993 the companion to the book of common worship is a practical guide answering questions such as how do I use the book of common worship to its fullest advantage and how can the book of common worship form a congregation into a community that glorifies and enjoys God these worship resources are inclusive in reference to god and humanity and reflect concern for justice and peace in the world they are also theologically sound scripturally based and well written they are contemporary yet dignified and graceful in tone and full of rich imagery for use in the context of worship

if you re looking for a fresh way to make lighting the advent wreath a meaningful and relevant part of the worship service this is just what you need richard hull has written brief conversational dialogues that relate the wisdom of the prophets found in the advent lectionary readings to modern life in each conversation two people reflect on the assigned reading and talk about life and faith leading to the lighting of the candles the presentations are accompanied by an informative essay explaining the background and history of the advent wreath covering all three lectionary cycles this is an excellent resource for any size congregation and they re also great for devotional use by families in the home best of all the informal tone of the writing will make worshipers feel like participants instead of observers use these dialogues to discover ancient truth in a contemporary setting richard j hull ii is pastor of riverside avenue christian church disciples of christ in jacksonville florida the riverside cast a theatre group in his present congregation makes regular worship presentations a graduate of bethany college west virginia and yale divinity school hull has also pastored congregations in indiana and pennsylvania while in indiana he co founded the tipton community theatre hull is the author of the three volume lenten worship series symbols of sacrifice css robert g alexander who contributed the background essay is a retired trial attorney and a freelance writer from jacksonville florida he is a graduate of davidson college and the university of florida college of law
