contains the first printing of sartor resartus as well as other works by thomas carlyle

this volume contains the first critical edition of girald odonis d 1349 de intentionibus in which the author deals with the multifarious problems around conceptualization with which philosophers and theologians from around 1300 were faced when attempting to bridge the gap between thought and reality girald appears to have been an unyielding defender of the realistic position holding that our variously articulated concepts intentiones are representative of as many distinctions in reality the main target of his severe criticism upon contemporaneous views of the matter is herv□ de n□dellec who was the first to write a monograph de intentionibus which betrays his adherence to a moderate realism the editor s extensive study of the intentionality debate of those years focusses on the development of the cognition theory in the period between thomas aquinas and peter auriol d 1322
